

Imagine giving a gift that will last forever ...

Two trusted organizations.

One fund. One goal ... a strong and vital community.

The AIDS Committee of Guelph & Wellington County Endowment Fund held at the Guelph Community Foundation was established to enable you to give beyond your lifetime. It was created to stabilize the financial future of AIDS Committee of Guelph & Wellington County.

The AIDS Committee of Guelph & Wellington County will use grants from this endowed fund to pay the ongoing costs of projects and programming. Gifts to the AIDS Committee of Guelph & Wellington County Endowment Fund are managed through a partnership with the Guelph Community Foundation and only interest income on the capital will be spent. This permanent fund will provide a source of lasting support that will benefit the AIDS Committee of Guelph & Wellington County, now and forever.

You can help us grow the AIDS Committee of Guelph & Wellington County Endowment Fund by making a donation today. The Guelph Community Foundation accepts gifts of cash, stocks, bonds and other assets. Giving through a bequest in your will is another option to making a meaningful contribution to the
